

From: Lorin Rivers
To: Microsoft ATR
Date: 11/20/01 3:11pm
Subject: Microsoft is anti-competitive

The proposed settlement, as I understand it, is the slightest of wrist-slaps compared to the damage this company has done, and will do given the opportunity, to the competitive landscape. They've proven they will do anything to "win". Any settlement that does not include a heavy fine and close inspection of their future business dealings will result in a total domination of the computer and personal electronics industry in a matter of years by Microsoft.